Isabella's Story

Isabella was my grandmother and was born in 1907 in Fort Wayne, Indiana. She had a 3rd grade education and was the oldest of many children. Because she was the oldest of many, my great grandparents were eager to marry off one of their children. My great-grandfather had paid a dowry to a man in Italy to marry my grandmother. My great-grandmother was not in favor of this, so she put Isabella on a train to Chicago to escape this marriage. She was to be met at the train by her aunt and uncle, who were late. Since she was only 13 years old, social services picked her up and put her in an orphanage. The aunt and uncle finally located her and hid her on a window sill outside of a building so the gentleman from Italy, who located her, could not find her. Once he got discouraged on locating Isabella, he left and she was introduced to Antonio Chiarappa who she married at the age of 13 and had her first child at 14. She went on to have 9 children, Palma, Angelo, Ralph, Daniel, Irene, Antoinette, Joanna (my mom), Mary and an un-named child who died at birth. Palma, Antoinette and Joanna are the surviving children.

Antonio died in 1946 at the age of 53. Isabella was 33 with 7 surviving children to raise. She made her living in the food industry. Her first job was feeding priests at Saint Columbine. Her next job was Hot Shops making airline meals and she ended with cooking for the Center for the Blind. With her 3rd grade education, she was manager, cook and pretty much the head person for this "canteen", which is what they called it.

In 1950 she married Ernest Schell who was 20 years her senior. He was Grandpa and lived until 1974. He was born in 1886.

I have great memories of Sunday dinners with wonderful meals and pinocle games, trips to downtown Chicago on the El to visit Santa, lunches at Woolworths, family feuds over the Cubs or Sox's, the list goes on! So it is only fitting that a "family place" should be named after a great lady!
